ment in the South, he said, is advencing so rapidly that this section is destined to become the centre of commercial activity in this country, bringing with it the peril of prosperity and commercial wealth, and the peril of rapid growth in towns and cities, and bringing the direful day when North Carolina becomes all cities.

Speaking of foreign immigration, Mr. Maddry said unless North Carolinians met the foreigners with the Bible and evangelize them they will Romanize, paganize and heathenize this State. He said he believed God had raised up Baptists to meet the needs of the people, because the belief and congregational polity appeal to the masses that one backward step on the part of Baptists would mean ruin and desolation, and that he believed Baptists are more responsible in their work of evangelization than any other denomination.

Livingston Johnston, correspondir secretary of mission board, was the other speaker, and he simply emphasized points in Mr. Maddry's address.

Pledges $50,000.

During the afternoon session the convention adopted a resolution pledging itself to raise $50,000 for State missions during the coming year.

A resolution was adopted also, requesting the Congress of the United States to pay to the Baptist Church in Newbern the amount due for the use of the church by the United States Army during the War of 1861-The interest of the Biblical Recorder was next considered. The speakers and ext considered. The speakers and ext considered.

The interest of the Biblical Recorder was next considered. The speakers on this subject were C. F. Whitlock, T. W. Chambliss and H. C. Moore. The need of an immediate campaign to increase the circulation of the paper was urged especially.

An hour during this session was spent in a memorial service, in honor of the ministers and laymen of the convention who have died since the convention who have died since the convention of a year ago.

The committee on temperance submitted a report which was adouted unanimously. The report recommended that the Legislature take action against the Sale of "near-beer" and system" in glubs, which was held to be in direct opposition to prohibition law. The work of the Anti-Saloon League was thoroughly indorsed.

The president of the convention, W. C. Dowd, at the opening of the conting session, expressed his appreciation to the convention for the honor conferred upon him. He then appointed the chairmen of the convention of next year.

Wake Forest College was the instance of the convention of next year.

Wake Forest College was the seaker. He dwelt especially upon the fact that most of the large educational institutions of the country had their origin as schools of religious denominations, and that while secular schools have a place in the world secularism, not so as a guide of life. He said that while Baptists did not object to a reasonable amount of taxation for the support of State Institutions, they do object to the monopoly of education upon the part of the State. Dr. Poteat expressed decided objection to the proposed passage of a bill in the next Legislature pass a bill providing for a large bond issue for the benefit of the State colleges. Immediately after the address the convention adopted a resolution deciaring that an effort will be made to have the next Legislature pass a bill providing for a large bond issue for the benefit of the State colleges. Immediately after the address the convention adopted a prepriet as help more missions. The sepakers were Rev. W. M. Vines an
